

Chapter 2 : Political Development

Curricular Goal :

CG-2 : Determine the process of change and continuity of human civilization through some specific examples.

Competencies :

C-2.1 : Collect oral and written sources to analyse changes in the political condition and art of ancient Manipur.

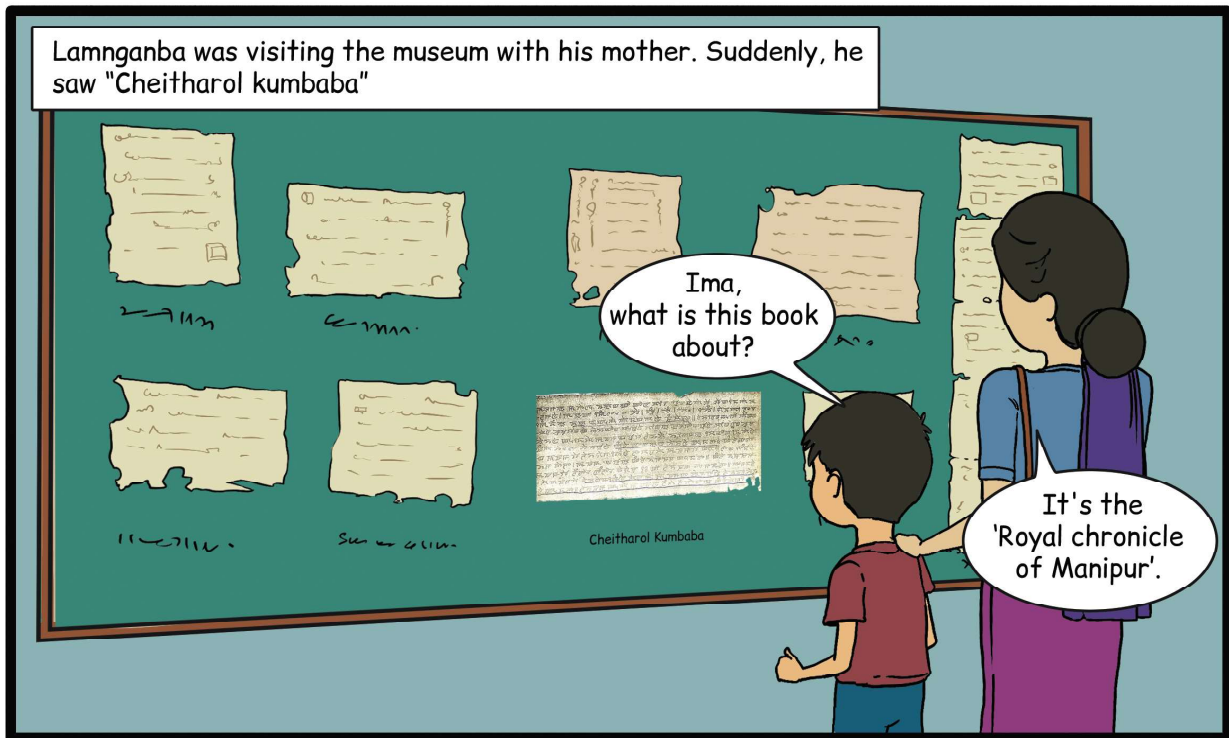

Learning Outcomes :

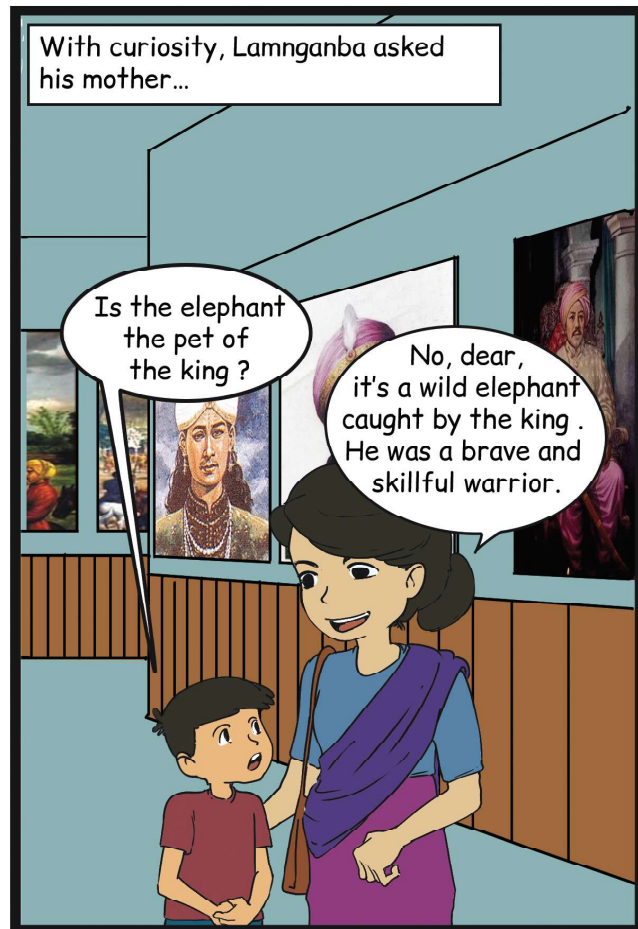

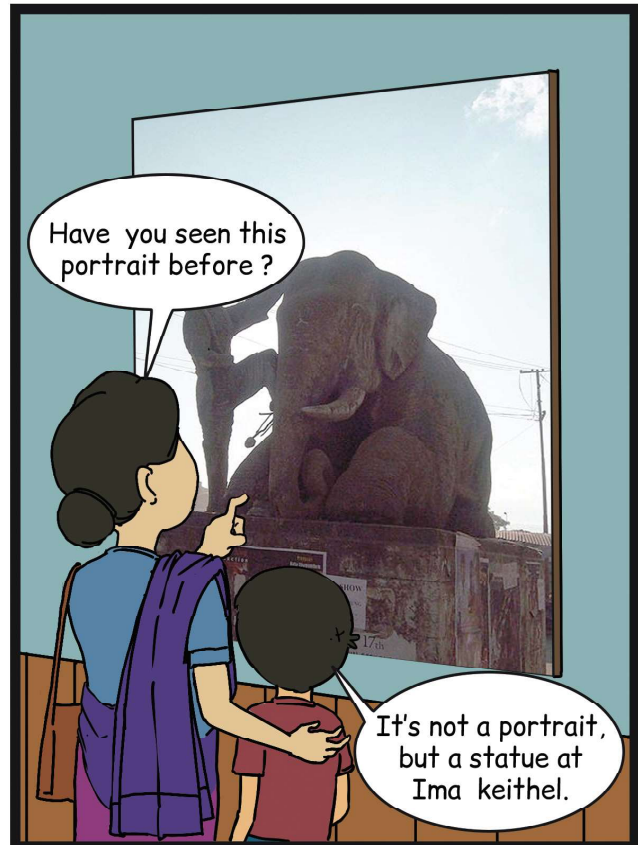

- 1. Familiarizes the term Kingdom with example.
- 2. Identifies the different works of Art & literature of Manipur.

CHAPTER 2

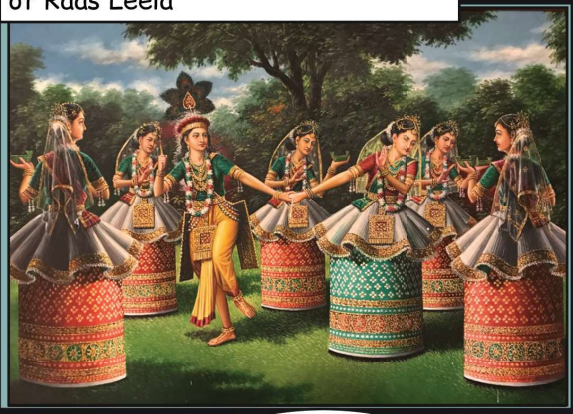

POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT

Lamnganba was visiting the museum with his mother. Suddenly, he saw "Cheitharol kumbaba"

Ibemhal showed her son a portrait of Raas Leela

This is 'Raas Leela' introduced by King Bhagyachandra of Manipur

It looks so elegant !!

Is this dance form still performed?

Yes dear, it is performed at different times of the year, even today.

They moved towards the literary section.

Were these books written in ancient times?

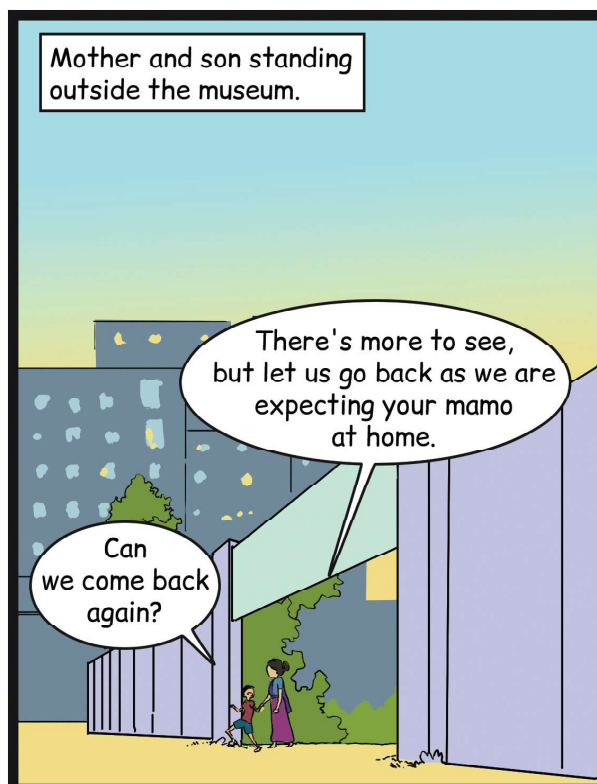

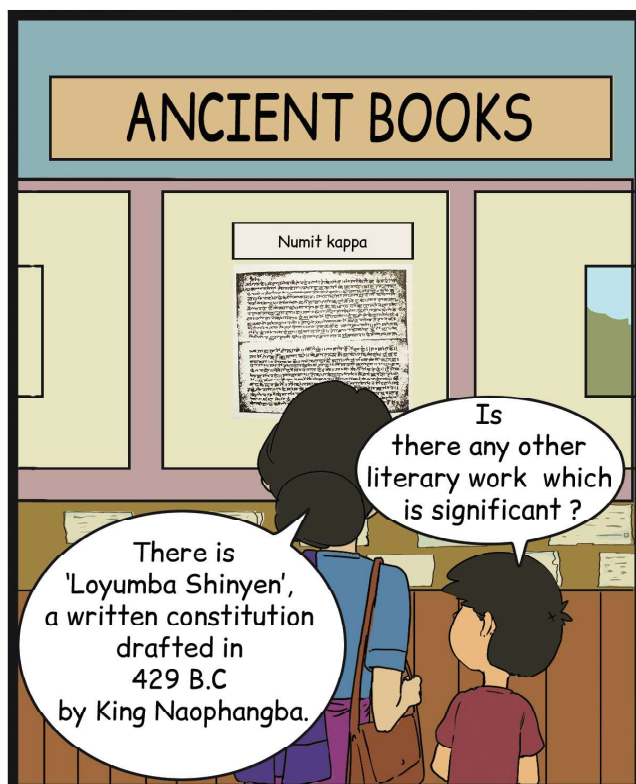

Yes, some were written as early as 33 AD.

ANCIENT BOOKS

Numit kappa

'Numit Kappa' is considered the oldest Epic in Meitei Literature.

Activity

- a. Tick the dance forms of Manipur from the given pictures (Cards or pictures of different dance forms of India to be displayed)
- b. List the names of some famous kings of Manipur.