

Chapter 5 : Trade and its benefits.

Curricular Goal :

CG-9 : Understand the Process of economic activities(trade &Commerce) And its impact on shaping an Individual's life.

Competencies :

C-9.1: Identifies Trade and commerce activities in one's own local market.

Learning Outcomes :

- 1. Explores Trade and its types.
- 2. Recognises the difference between Bill and Cash Memo.
- 3. Identifies wholesale trade and retail trade.
- 4. Explains the benefit of trade.

CHAPTER 5

TRADE AND ITS BENEFITS

Father continues talking about types of trade

Trades may be of 'DOMESTIC' OR 'INTERNATIONAL'

It is the exchange of goods and services within the geographical boundary of a nation.

Domestic trade what is that?

Papa, what about international trade?

INDO MYANMAR FRIENDSHIP GATE

International trade is the exchange of goods and services between countries.

Laija thinks of selling surplus fruits and vegetable grown at their home.

We can also sell our surplus fruits and vegetables.

Of course, Why not?

They have finally reached home.

Laija, Are you happy now?

Yes, Thank you Papa.

Laija hums a song and rides her bicycle happily.

LALA

Activity

Q. Compare the price of the following items sold in wholesale shop and retail shop.

Items	Wholesale	Retail Price
Sugar		Rs.60/Kg
Edible Oil	Rs.120/litre
Rice	Super fine Rs.900/bag
Tin Fish		Rs.150/piece
Candle

Q. Buy the following items from a departmental store and collect the bill.

a. Maggi, Mustard oil 1 Lt., Biscuit, Toothpaste, Tea special 1 kg.